

A 10x10 grid of numbers from 1 to 100. The grid is organized into several sections:

- Top Row: Contains the numbers 10, 20, 30, 40, 50, 60, and 70.
- Section 1 (Row 1-4, Col 1-10): A large rectangular area containing mostly the number 2. It includes small clusters of 3s and 4s, such as a 3x3 cluster at (3, 10), a 2x2 cluster at (4, 9), and a 4x2 cluster at (4, 8).
- Section 2 (Row 5-8, Col 1-10): A large rectangular area containing mostly the number 2. It includes a 3x3 cluster of 3s at (5, 10) and a 2x2 cluster of 3s at (6, 9).
- Section 3 (Row 9-10, Col 1-10): A large rectangular area containing mostly the number 2. It includes a 2x2 cluster of 3s at (9, 10) and a 2x2 cluster of 4s at (10, 9).

Arrows indicate specific features:

- An arrow points to the number 10 in the top row.
- An arrow points to the number 2 in the bottom-left corner of Section 1.
- An arrow points to the number 3 in the bottom-left corner of Section 2.
- An arrow points to the number 4 in the bottom-left corner of Section 3.
